History of Economic Thought before 1870
Midterm/Final Exam: Sample 1

Time Allowed: 2 Hours

There are two parts to this exam for a total of 80 marks.

Part I is composed of short answer questions for a total of 30 marks.
You are to answer 20 questions, each worth 2 marks, out of the 28 questions provided.

Part II is composed of two (2) essay style questions, each worth 20 marks.
You are to answer 2 of the 4 questions provided.

Part I: Answer 15 questions
Each question requires at most a few sentences.

1. Why is the State 'clearly prior' to the family for Aristotle even though the family arises historically before the State? Explain.

2. What is the difference between the concept of money in Plato and in Aristotle (in the Politics)?