History of Economic Thought before 1870
Midterm Exam: Sample #4

Time Allowed: 1 hour 50 minutes

There are two parts to this exam, with a potential total of 100 marks

Part I is composed of short questions for a total of 60 marks. You are to answer 20 questions, each worth 3 marks, out of the 25 questions.

Part II is composed of an essay style questions worth 30 marks. You are to answer 1 of the 2 questions provided.

Part I: Each question requires at most a few sentences.

What is the difference between Aristotle's and Plato's explanation of the existence of strife in society?

What is the difference between Plato's and Aristotle's concept of the origins of money?

What is the economic significance of Xenophon's statement that "the greater the number of superfluous dishes set before a man, the sooner a feeling of repletion comes over him"?