FORM A

1. Which one of the following statements about blood constituents is correct?
a. Blood plasma consists mostly of proteins
b. Plasma is separated from blood cells by centrifuge
c. Albumin is involved in blood clotting
d. The formed elements consist mostly of neutrophils

2. Which one of the following is an example of a physical barrier against pathogens?
a. The production of phagocytes
b. Inflammation around a wound site
c. High stomach pH
d. The epithelium

3. What is the effect of mast cells releasing histamine and heparin in the inflammatory response?
a. Vasoconstriction of blood vessels
b. Reduced blood flow
c. Attraction of neutrophils