This is a practice SOC100 midterm provided to serve as a test preparation resource. It was the actual midterm in the Fall, 2024 semester so it serves as a realistic example of the type of test questions you will find on the real test. However, please be advised that the assigned material was different that year and so you will not see AM material on this practice test, but you will see questions on those on the real midterm (please see the study guide for what specifically from assigned material is on the midterm).
