Instructions

Read these instructions, but do not begin (i.e. turn the page) until test start is announced. Each person must do their own work on the midterm. Do not talk to anyone other than the instructor about the midterm while it is in progress.

1. Write your first and last name above.

2. There are 4 questions, some with sub-questions. The point value for each question is indicated. Partial credit will be given, so even if you don't know how to do a complete problem, outline what you know.

3. Clearly justify each step in your answers.

4. Write your answers in the space provided. If you need extra space, there are extra sheets attached to the end of the exam. Clearly label each question (e.g. 2(b)) that is
